Evaluation

Maximum compability is 100% but this value is very rare and rather theoretical.
Of course the relationship is influenced by other factors like financial security or which background partners come from
In real life the relationship between a Prince and a Cinderella is not as romantic as in a tale :-)

Evaluation of partner's relationships:

0-20% relationship for killing, I do not recommend in any form (about 3% partner's relationships)

20-40% very unpleasant relationship (about 25% partner's relationships)

40-60% average relationship, once up once down (about 50% partner's relationships)

60-80% very nice relationship (about 25% partner's relationships)

80-100% ideal harmony (about 2% partner's relationships)
